2.B LESSON: REPENT LETTER

Resources:

Bible, Song Book, Prayer Diary

Instructions:

“R” is for “repent”. “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive our sins...” 1 John 1: 9.

1. Write a “Repent” letter to God using the format below...

a. The greeting: Start your letter with “Dear _____,”. (Choose any name for God that is found in the Bible.) Place a comma after your greeting.

b. The body: Indent before writing your answers in complete sentences to the following statements...

1.) Confess any sins you have committed against God’s word.

2.) Confess any rebellious attitudes you have had toward God’s authorities.

3.) Confess any lack of love you have had toward others.

c. The closing: Finish your letter to God by telling Him you love Him; then, sign your name. Make sure you place a comma between your statement of love to God and your name. Example: “Love forever, David Reece”

2. Now talk to God and tell Him how sorry you are for your sins by reading your prayer to Him aloud. Listen quietly for a minute, so God can talk to you.

3. Complete your prayer time with a song, such as, “Amazing Grace” or one of your favorite songs.

3.B LESSON:BIBLE: CHARACTER STUDY

Resources:

Bible, Bible dictionary / dictionary, marker/chalk board

Instructions:

1.Refer to the Character section of the Bible Scope and Sequence for this week's character.

2.Write this week's character as the title for this week's character study.

3.Refer to this week's Scripture reading and the Bible dictionary to answer these questions about this week's character.

a. Facts: important facts about the character...

1) Physical and character traits.

2) Birth and death dates.

3) Parents, children, wife (wives).

4) Education, occupation, other.

b. Conflict: What conflict or problem did the character face?

c. Choice: What right and/or wrong choices did the character make?

d. Consequence: What were the consequences of the character's choices?

4. Explain why the character did or did not glorify God.

5. Locate the character in the concordance and find a Scripture to support your conclusions about this week's character.

Beginners (K-5th/5-10 yrs.): Those students who cannot independently read the Bible and write complete sentences will be teacher/parent instructed. The student will orally tell, draw, trace, copy, or write the answers in simple words, phrases, or sentences depending on ability of the student.

Note: Bible Study Method: Character has a skill level worksheet.
